Below you have the opportunity to tell me, room by room, what makes your home special. In addition, I have provided you with the following questions that will help me design the most powerful marketing campaign possible.

What is your favorite feature of your home?

What is the best thing about the location of your home?

List any updates you have done and the year they were completed.